... who bears the brunt of complaints on loose dogs in Hondo, found a good point in a letter-to-the-editor in a San Antonio newspaper.

It pointed out that many laws are unenforceable simply because "the people will not support them."

The dog leash ordinance in Hondo is one of those laws, City Manager Leinweber believes. And the letter writer worded it in good fashion: "... some people have as many as two or three of these mutts running loose and using other peoples' yards for a toilet. But the law is unenforceable because these people (and others) won't support it."

All this adds up to one fact: Hondo has problems with its mutts and might just go to the dogs if residents continue refusing to give support to the ordinance by keeping their hounds off the streets and away from garbage cans and other peoples' lawns.

Museum given quilts

These beautiful handmade quilts have been donated to the Medina County Museum to be auctioned off at Museum Celebration Day on May 6. Mrs. Rosa Graff, right, donated the white quilt (top) and Mrs. John Fasel, left, gave the other one. Several ladies helped with the quilting. The quilts will go to the highest bidders at the Antique Auction. Other items are also needed for this auction, and anyone who has something is urged to call Frank Graff at 426-2962; Fritz Leinweber at 426-3378; John Wentz at 426-2788; or the Anvil Herald at 426-3346.

Allen Lee

Lee seeking office

Allen C. Lee, Devine attorney, announces his candidacy for the office of County Attorney, subject to the Democratic Primary of May 8th.

Lee states, "The primary function of County Attorney should be to discourage lawlessness and promote respect for the law. The types of cases which he prosecutes range from moving violations through aggravated assault. In prosecuting these cases, I feel that fundamental due process requires a fair, impartial and speedy trial. The long delays between arrest and trial, I feel, serve to encourage disrespect for the law. This situation can and will be changed during my term as your County Attorney."

He further stated, "Other areas of great concern are drug abuse and juvenile delinquency. As a former teacher and public school administrator, I feel that I understand the problems and frustrations of parents with school-age children. Having defended some of these children, I can state that the problems are not confined to any particular socio-economic or ethnic group. They are problems which must be

Library plans open house

The Castroville Public Library will hold open house Thursday, March 16, in honor of its founding.

R. E. Getz, Field Consultant of the Texas State Library, will speak at 8 p. m., explaining the concept of a County Library System.

Board members from the three libraries in the county plan to attend and young patrons of the library are invited to visit the library between the hours of 3 to 5 p. m. and adult patrons from 7:30 to 10 p. m.

Construction picture gives 1972 bright outlook

If building permits in Hondo would continue the pace set in January and February, 1972 would be a big year for construction.

The two months total reached $203,512, with residential building accounting for most of the figure. Eleven new homes were started in the two months at a total of $157,800. Two of these were $30,000 and $40,000 and the remaining ones ranged from $8,000 to $13,500.

Commercial construction showed a brighter picture, hitting $31,000. The addition to the Ranch Store on Avenue M topped the spurt of activity at $18,000. This addition will house an expansion of the Ranch Store and also an office for United Gas.

Charles Tondre's commercial warehouse for $10,000 was next highest followed by Jake's Nursery at $3,000. Out at K&B Drive In, Bobby Heyen is building a new enclosed barbecue pit.

Remodeling, repairs and additions accounted for $13,912 of the total.

Not included in this total figure is an expansion out at Universal-Rundle which will add some 20,000 square feet to the company's present space. This expansion also will mean some additional people will be hired.

Some other building going on under permits granted last year is the $130,000 addition to Hondo High School and an extension E. J. Chapa is building on the back of his furniture store on Avenue M.

Covered dish meal to spark retail promotion plans

A special letter of invitation has gone out to Hondo merchants to attend a general meeting of the Hondo Retail Merchants Association.

The meeting, scheduled for Thursday, March 9, at 7 p. m., will be in the form of a covered dish supper. It will be held at the First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

"The meat, which will be baked ham, will be furnished," said Nancy Fridle, chairman of the Promotion Committee, "so please bring either vegetable or salad dishes or desert."

Important subjects to be discussed and voted on include: election of officers, paid membership in Association, April promotion, a sale in July, and a pre-Christmas sale in November.

Recommendation on membership dues will be $10 per year for each business with five employees or less and $20 per year for each business with more than five employees. Paid membership benefits include: night watchman for Halloween and at the annual banquet two paid plates ($10 membership) and four paid plates ($20 membership).

"Please make an effort to be present," Mrs. Fridle said. "Let's get 1972 off to a productive and money-making year for the Hondo Business Community."

All merchants are urged to call the Chamber of Commerce 426-2015 and let them know how many will be represented. The invitation said "you and your wife" but also went a little farther in stating: "if you would like to include any of your key personnel in this invention, please feel free to do so ... just let us know how many to expect."

Johnnie Morales

Morales runs for trustee

In announcing as a candidate for the Hondo School Board, Place 2, Johnnie Morales authorized the Anvil Herald to make the following release:

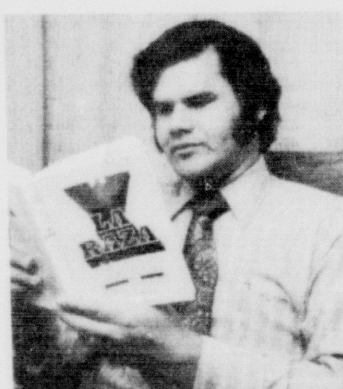

"I, Johnnie Morales, being a 1969 graduate of Hondo High School, placed my name for recognition as a candidate for Place 2 as a School Board member.

"After graduating I enrolled at Southwest Texas Junior College. Having gone one year at SWTJC, I transferred to SAC in San Antonio. From here I moved to Texas A&I University.

"In each college I attended, I met and talked with students from all over the state. It seems that with each student that I talked with, the conversation of high school years came about. They talked about activities that they wanted but never had. They talked about problems they had during these years and that they had no one to tell them to because of something that was holding them back.

"Understanding a little about what goes on in a student's mind, I think I would be of great help to them by means of communicating and by letting me be their voice.

"Your vote and support will be needed April 1, so please don't forget to vote. Thank you. Johnnie Morales."

Jesus Rodriguez

Rodriguez seeks Place 4

In filing as a candidate for City Councilman, Place 4, Jesus Rodriguez authorized the Anvil Herald to release the following announcement:

"I was born in Hondo on August 25, 1940, and have been a life-long resident. My parents, Miguel and Francisca Rodriguez, moved from Hondo to find better living and working conditions and are now living in Waukesha, Wisconsin.

"I married the former Ramona Ybarra and we have four children, all of whom are in school.

"I attended St. Phillips at San Antonio and San Antonio College in 1968 and 1971.

"For the past several years I have been active with various civic organizations and for the last year have served as Chairman of the Hondo Citizens for Better Government. Through this organization we have worked with the people to educate and inform citizens of their rights and responsibilities. Through monthly and special meetings we have brought guest speakers and experts who are more informed before the people to talk about government procedures and activities. Our monthly meetings are always held the Thursday after the City Council meeting. Part of each meeting's agenda is a report on the City Council meeting. All our meetings are conducted in Spanish because it is easier for our people to relate to the reports and activities of this organization.

"I feel there is much room for improvement in this city, especially in the north side. Problems such as drainage, housing, street

Antonio Garcia, III

Garcia seeks Place 5

The following announcement was authorized for release in the Anvil Herald by Antonio Garcia III, candidate for City Councilman, Place 5.

"When one thinks of the democratic process or of representative government, one usually equates it to Justice, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. I choose to run for the elective post of City Councilman, Place 5 because of my conviction that these three basic concepts of democracy that are guaranteed in our Constitution are being subverted by our present government.

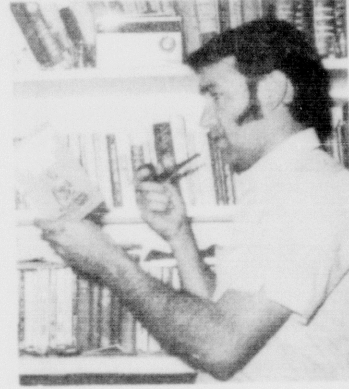

"While I am no raving radical nor subversive, I do believe that I'm an intelligent person to some degree. For this reason I wish to bring to light a disturbing but true picture of what I believe to be basically wrong with the present city government in regards to the Mexican-American community in Hondo.

"It is time that we face up to the reality of what has happened and is daily happening to the Chicano community in Hondo. For the most part we have been deprived of 'Justice', 'Liberty', and the 'Pursuit of Happiness'. While these conditions might not be obvious to the Anglo community, it is most certainly obvious to myself, the Chicano community and my colleagues.

"To begin with, the Mexican-American community in Hondo is over 50% of the population and yet, we do not have any representation in the present City Council, this is 'unjust' considering that this is a democratic society.

This is but one of the

Three file for Council

Santos seeks Place 3

Tom E. Santos, in filing for City Councilman, Place 3, made the following announcement:

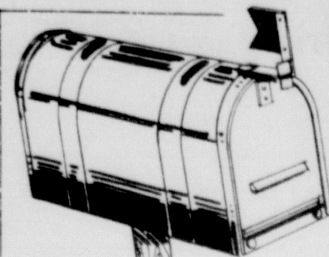

"I am an independent candidate for Place #3 in the Hondo City Council.

"I am 30 years old, married to the former Mary Rodriguez of Hondo, and we have three children. I was born and raised in Hondo and have lived here for most of my life except for a two-year tour of duty with the U.S. Naval Reserve and five years which I spent working and going to college in California. I attended one semester at Trinity University in San Antonio then while in California went to Long Beach City College for five semesters, three of which I was a full time student while working nights.

"Before I moved away from here I took things for granted and didn't care to question the status quo. Moving back to your home town after a long absence will do more than just open your eyes, it will either smother you in futility or will spur you into action. Me, I am going the action route. It is too easy to sit back and say, 'Things have never been better.' But this is a cop-out because things should be better and I will do all that is in my power to make it so. I will not betray my people by selling them short on representation. If I am elected I will know who it was that elected me and I will work for those who need this representation the most.

"In the past year I have been working with the Hondo Citizens for Better Government and have actively participated in the

Letters from the mailbox

Dear Mr. Lawrence

I certainly do appreciate your letter of the 15th and the interest you express in the letter. Dolph is now in the process of trying to formulate position papers on some of the outstanding problems facing Texas in the next few years. This takes a great deal of study and evaluation because as one becomes more involved in the issues of the campaign one becomes increasingly aware that the answers do not come without sincere, dedicated mental anguish and effort.

Thank you again for your interest in the campaign and we shall send you copies of Dolph's position papers as they are formulated.

Sincerely,

M.R. Theis awarded certificate

Milton R. Theis, Sr., of 1130 Culebra Ave., San Antonio, was presented a Department of Air Force Certificate of Service in recognition of his 30 years of faithful and devoted federal services on the occasion of his retirement from civilian employment.

The presentation was made by Col. Craig at Lackland AFB on Jan. 26, 1972.

After this, his office workers had a small reception in his honor.

SCS news

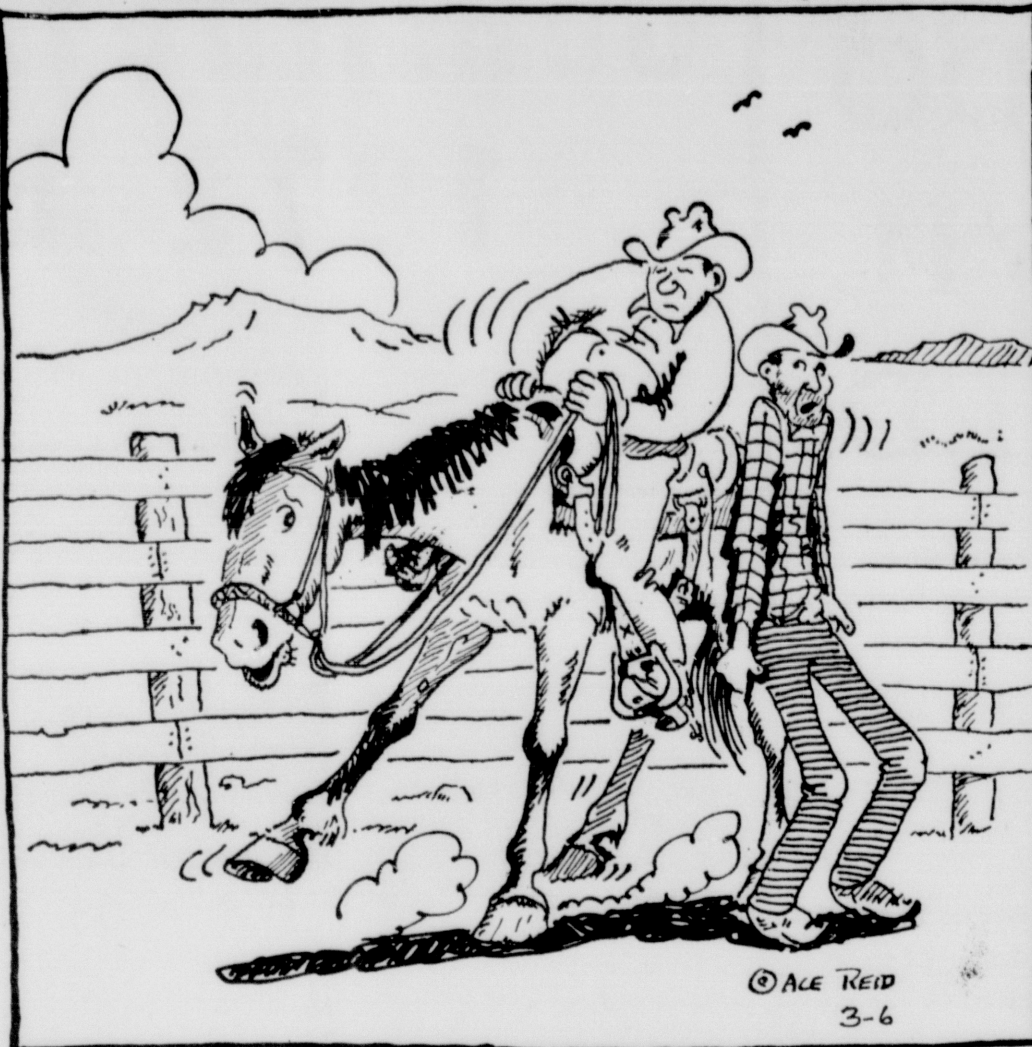

Numerous requests have recently been received at our local office from farmers and ranchers desiring advice on burning Coastal bermuda-grass.

The most frequently asked question is, "Should I burn my Coastal?" Many harmful and desirable insects are killed by burning. Burning under improper atmospheric conditions can cause pollution in the lower atmosphere, especially near large cities which already generate a large amount of pollution. If heavy rainfall is received after burning and before the grass has regrown sufficiently, severe erosion can occur. This results in the loss of needed organic matter, essential mineral nutrients, and pollution of local streams, rivers and other surface waters. Many of the areas we advise to be planted to Coastal are areas with a high potential for erosion. Bare soil is exposed by Coastal burning which usually results in a weed infestation that may require spraying. Frequently these weeds are unpalatable, resulting in a loss of water and nutrients which could have been utilized by the grass. The exposed soil surface also increases water loss due to evaporation.

The principal benefits realized from Coastal burning in our area are that it facilitates the digging of sprigs and removes trash which improves planting success. If burning is done, proper control measures and caution should be used to prevent a wild fire.

Coastal pastures used for grazing in our area should not be burned. Dead grass on the surface reduces water loss and increases the organic matter which enhances the water absorbing capacity of the soil. Grass leaves cushion falling rain drops and help prevent erosion. Dominant Coastal leaves in the field can be utilized as an emergency source of feed, as during a drought, by adding a protein supplement to the livestock.

KAZEN IN WASHINGTON

Rural development bill is designed to help local area

Important legislative action was taken in the House last week when we passed the Rural Development bill. The Chairman of the Agriculture Committee, Rep. Bob Poage of Texas, led the floor action, with active support from Speaker Carl Albert and a bi-partisan majority of the Agriculture Committee. The bill, if approved by the Senate and signed into law by the President, would achieve goals which I have actively advocated.

Farm income has not kept pace with other segments of our economy in recent years. Not only has this led to out-migration from the farms, but many towns and small cities have been hurt, too, ranging from grocers and implement dealers to schools and churches. Some of us have been saying for years that the urban centers were hurt, too, with the problems of providing jobs, homes, schools, and other facilities for the people who left the farms in search of better livelihoods.

LONG-DELAYED ATTENTION

This bill provides long-delayed federal attention to communities in rural areas. Business loans would be authorized, and they would be placed under a federal insurance plan that would leave the actual lending business to local banks and financial institutions. Dollar limitations on sewer and water grants would be eliminated, both for communities and for individuals.

The Farmers Home Administration would be authorized to make grants for rural development. The agricultural credit insurance fund would be greatly expanded, and there would be new authority for watershed protection and flood prevention.

The Soil Conservation Service and the Farmers Home Administration, long experienced in their fields, are given expanded authority.

I believe this bill will see the creation of new businesses and industries in small towns. That means more jobs, and new hope for the communities where people know each other, enjoy working together, and deserve improved conditions for themselves and their children.

SOCIAL SECURITY INCREASES

Wilbur Mills, Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, has introduced a proposal to increase Social Security payments by 20 percent, effective June 1. He said recent studies show that the Social Security funds have the money, so that the fund can remain actuarially sound with the proposed increases. Chairman Mills feels, as I do, that the elderly and disabled need help more than any other group of Americans.

The average benefits would go from $133 to $162 a month for single persons, from $222 to $269 a month for couples, and from $114 to $153 a month for widows. There are other changes proposed, one of them providing that top payments go to persons who have earned over $12,000 a year instead of the present ceiling on $9,000 earnings.

Chairman Mills also has indicated that his committee will send a revenue-sharing plan to the House in March, with a new version giving more attention to the money needs of the larger cities. The problems of local governments are getting careful attention in the committee, and we in the House will study the plans carefully as they are developed.

Morales Feed Lot honored by Soil Conservation Unit

Pete Morales Feedlot, Inc. of the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District has been selected by the directors as the plant or industry that has the greatest achievement in "Environmental Control" for 1971. This was a pleasant and easy choice for the directors of the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District.

So great has been the many accomplishments on this anti-pollution feed lot, that it is known by many as the "Odorless Feedlot".

This father and son team became cooperators of the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District on October 16, 1958. The plan began with approximately 110 acres and is now 489 acres of coastal bermuda grass. The only acres not in coastal are covered with beautiful homes, buildings for feed and sloping floors that has this odorless feed lot of 8 to 10,000 livestock free of pollution.

This family team has willingly sought advice from the Soil Conservation Service, Texas Water Quality Board and other feed lot owners in the design and layout of the entire system. Strong believers in the welfare and health of others, the Morales contacted every reliable source to be sure that pollution was an air and soil disease of the past on their holdings. Over a million square feet of concrete is contained in the feed lots, so that no waste gets to the soil. The everyday traveler passes on Interstate 35 and borders their property line. Many of these cars stop in Moore and Devine. The gas station attendants report that travelers marvel at the size of the Morales Feed Lot, and yet the air is pure and odorless from the livestock waste.

So efficient is this push button feed lot that interested visitors are plentiful. Teams of agronomists and engineers representing the Soil Conservation Service and other agencies have come from Texas, Oklahoma, Maryland, California, New Mexico, Arkansas and other states to view this industry of anti-pollution perfection. The grounds have been visited by the Texas Section of Range Society, Soil Conservation Society, Southwest Texas College and other schools. Each have come to view, learn and stand witness to this anti-pollution and odorless feedlot.

From San Antonio the Chamber of Commerce has spent hours on the grounds getting information to help serve their fellow citizens in the battle of air and soil pollution.

Representatives of Mexico have come in numbers and as far as Mexico City with the willingness to learn and take back plans, that will do much to stop pollution and make way for a healthier environment in that country.

Perhaps the greatest asset of the entire feedlot is the cooperation and dedication that the Morales have in their continued cheerful way of meeting the public and groups of interested people. Their smile is one of pride as they take time from a busy day to explain in detail why each design was necessary to contain the approximate 500,000 pounds of waste each day from livestock.

Their willingness to help their fellow mankind is a well discussed subject among all who come in contact with them.

The Texas Water Quality Board, with great pride, issued their "Pollution Permit" to the Morales Feedlot, Inc.

Conservation and anti-pollution is a must on this beautiful grassed land that receives the public eye from thousands of Americans that travel Interstate 35.

On each tour Pete Morales, Sr. and Pete Morales, Jr. will pass great praise to the Soil Conservation Service assisting the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District for their technical guidance. The District and Soil Conservation Service recognizes the greatest of dedication of this "father and son" team and realizes that as long as we have Americans such as those who control this feedlot, we can have clean air and a healthy America.

Therefore, it is with the greatest of pride and pleasure that we, the directors of the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District, recommend Morales Feedlot, Inc. as the outstanding "industry" and promoters of "environmental control".

Friday Leadership Conference sponsored in New Braunfels by the South Texas Chamber of Commerce.

It proved to be an interesting meeting and we all three heard some excellent suggestions which might prove beneficial to our Chamber and its city. I will attempt to cover as much as possible of what we heard at the meeting in later issues, but one item that hit home, not only to Hondo but to all Chambers of Commerce.

Vic Mathias of Austin was talking on the budget and he hit the nail on the head when he said all sizes chambers experience the same problem with the budget . . . "when the money runs out we have a lot of the year left."

RAIN GAUGES

. . . have had little recording to do in Medina County in the past two months and people are beginning to wonder.

And they have expressed their wonderings by questioning the weather reporter Doc O. B. Taylor. Or so he says in the following message to the editor:

"Have been approached many times lately in regard to that 'wet stuff'-- here are some dates, let's see you work something out of it. Two EARLY morning moon changes AND the Vernal Equinox --what more could you ask for?

"March 8 will see a moon change at 1:06 a.m. and then on March 15 it will change again at 5:35 a.m. Then on March 20 comes Vernal Equinox (day and night are of equal length).

"May these dates and changes be an incentive to give the farmer what he wants, what he needs. OBT"

To be honest with you Doc, all I can do is put what you have said down on paper. As far as doing anything else with it, I can't, because I don't even understand what you are talking about. Except that is, we need rain.

HAVE YOU SEEN

. . . these new mustaches? E. J. Chapa, Pete DeLeon, Ramon Carrasco, Deotora Hernandez, Jack Gruber (if he hasn't shaved it off since I saw him). All are joining the fun of publicizing Museum Celebration Day on May 6.

You can kid them if you want to, but while you are doing it just remember what what the effort and agony they are going through stands for: another big, fun-filled Museum Celebration Day featuring the Antique Auction, the Country Store, the Purple Petticoat Saloon and many other concessions.

TEXAS EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION

. . . has informed us that it will have a representative in Hondo every Tuesday to help persons seeking employment. The representative will be at the Chamber of Commerce office from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon every Tuesday to take applications and assist applicants with any Texas Employment Commission information.

"THANK YOU"

We want to express our gratitude to the many persons who came out to make our opening such a successful one.

SOMEONE

. . . gave me something I have been carrying around in my pocket for months. So I suppose the only way to get rid of it is to print it here. This tid-bit of news says (and I definitely quote):

"The first recorded strike in the United States occurred in 1786, when Philadelphia printers demanded $6 a week wages."

Tony and Johnny Joe Mendoza, our backshop brother duo, had this to say when I showed the item to them: "Gee, they must not have been too successful with their strike." I wonder what they meant.

TWO LADIES

. . . who have worked hard to help beautify our city have been singled out for honors in a tree planting program at the McDowell School where four hybrid Oaks were planted in the county and last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shows donated two trees for the school grounds and gave them in honor of two "of our leading citizens who have done so much for the beautification of our city."

The honorees are Mrs. Agnes Oefinger and Mrs. Jack Winkler. This we believe is a fitting token of appreciation for two who have gone "above and beyond" in an effort to beautify Hondo.

The other two trees were given the school by Mrs. M. L. McDowell in memory of her late husband for whom the school was named.

Principal Edward Hilsher expressed appreciation for these tree gifts and said, "more are needed if anyone else wishes to donate them. Just contact me at the McDowell School."

Scouts plan pickup

SAN ANTONIO--Saturday is pickup day as Scouts of Hondo and Medina County complete their annual, massive Good turn for handicapped South Texans training at Goodwill Industries here.

The Scouts delivered Goodwill bags to households last Saturday and are urging residents to place discarded but usable articles of all types in the bags. These bags will be picked up Saturday.

Items collected by the Scouts are used to train mental and physically handicapped persons skills which later helps them find gainful employment. In the training the collected articles are repaired and refurbished.

He was some boar

In fact this Russian Boar, estimated to weigh around 300 pounds, was quite a hog. He was killed Tuesday by C. J. Pichot, right, of Hondo, Richard Stitts of Uvalde and J. E. Saathoff. Stitts brought his hog dogs and they bayed the hog in what Pichot called the Green Hill area about 10 miles northeast of Quihi. Pichot said he saw the hog in that area some 10 years ago and since that time he has been killing calves and injuring cows. One thing for sure, he looks mean even though dead.

injustices that I can see, however this will suffice for the time being. The Chicano in Hondo is uneducated, unskilled, underpaid and socially depraved, no one can attempt to deny this for it is perfectly true. The Chicano has been deprived of his "Pursuit of Happiness". Thirdly, the Chicano is not free, he does not know "liberty"; he is a slave of social and economic factors that must be alleviated.

"This can only be done through the functions of the city government. I am running for office so that I will have an opportunity to restore one of these basic rights to the Chicanos of Hondo.

"Strange as it may seem, I am not prejudiced and will work for the community as a whole, but it is also perfectly logical to help those who need help the most. I will assure you that in running for this post my primary interest is the Chicano. Viva La Paza" complaints in this respect. There is room for improvement here also.

"I am dedicated to this work and am always reading material that will help me deal with problems that have to be faced by our people every day. I am also in touch with experts who can give us constructive advice.

"As an independent candidate for Place #4 in the Hondo City Council, it is my wish to serve my people as they have never been served before."

That's all she wrote

by Edna McDade

Days are growing longer. According to the Texas Farm Bureau calendar, March 1 began with 11 hrs. 18 m. and by month's end will have stretched to 12 hr. 37 m.

Redbud . . . Japonica . . . Bluebonnets . . . Buttercups . . . Blue skies . . . Pink clouds . . . Birdsong . . . How's a body to keep her mending mind on column-writing?

Rules for Good Writing were among the miscellany which filled my mail box this day. I must be at the head of the mailing lists of several correspondence schools which might be trying to tell me something.

"Write like you talk . . . write to be understood . . . prefer picture nouns & action verbs" . . . Hmm . . . To write like/as I talk would be to "babble on to Babylon and be destroyed by Sennacherib"—which was one of the wisecracks in my high school days.

Cascarone time (rhymes—almost—with macaroni) is here again. I was reminded of the gayly decorated eggshells, filled with confetti and meant to be broken over the heads of the unsuspecting, when I met Mrs. MARGARITA CAMPOS as she shopped for materials for making them.

This is a hobby with Mrs. Campos who told me she sells them for use at community festivals and gives many to her grandchildren who find them a special delight at Easter.

At age 4 (on Apr. 22) GEORGE LIECK, Jr., knows 'zactly what he intends to be when he gets big as his Daddy who is a construction foreman. An Indian cowboy and carpenter, that's what.

At present he is the big brother of SANDRA LYNN who joined the family of GEORGE and DIANA (Miller) LIECK of Devine on Jan. 31, 1972.

JAKE and ROSELYN SCHUEHLE were even busier than the income tax experts at this season when they opened their new and very modern nursery on Hwy. 90 West last Friday. Customers were standing in line at the checkout counter and having a wonderful time comparing green thumbs.

I remembered that Ogden Nash had once covered the general subject of horticulture (with the likes of me in mind) and I found that he said it this way:

"My garden will never make me famous/ I'm a horticultural ignoramus/ I can't tell a string-bean from a soybean/ Or even a girl bean from a boy bean."

Daughter JUDY (Mrs. Leslie) SCHUMANN was on hostess duty. Her mother told me that Judy had suggested babysitting with KELLY (2½) and HUNTER who arrived only a few weeks ago: "I'll do the hard work at the plant nursery," said Judy.

Said Grandmother S, "No way. I served my apprenticeship. Now it's your Dad's turn and mine to smell the flowers while you grow yours!"

But guess whose home bears all the marks of indulgent grandparents?

If you lived in Japan, you'd have to pay $1 each for the delicious Texas pink grapefruit which is now available in Hondo at bargain prices. FRED HALPIN of Pleasanton, marketing specialist with the Texas Dept. of Agriculture, told me that the fruit is flown all the way to Japan where it finds a ready market even at the $1 price.

He also said that recently a boatload of 30,000 cases had been shipped to Germany. He didn't say what the "reichsmark-up" was.

Whatever our German friends must pay, I hope they find our Texas grapefruit Sehr Gut and order more.

Count CYNTHIA LYNN, 5-year old daughter of DOUGLAS and JOYCE (Noblett) HAASS, among the most successful Future Homemakers of America.

When Cynthia was helping herself to some free recipes at the grocery, her grandmother, Mrs. RANDOLPH (Inez) HAASS, suggested that these were probably intended only for grownups.

Asked Cynthia, "But how will I ever learn to cook without recipes?" How, indeed?

Rook board is up

Rook players had a fine time in D'Hanis Sunday and will go back this coming Sunday for finals in the big Rook Tournament. Some 40 couples entered the first such tournament and players have been divided into two flights. Prizes will be awarded Sunday to winners in the D'Hanis Lions Club sponsored event. Chris Finger, left, and Bob Rothe designed this scoreboard for the tournament.

New type trades day announced

D'Hanis: --- A pecan budwood and graftwood Trades Day or Exchange Day will be held in the local Holy Cross Parish Hall, Saturday, March 11, beginning at 11 a.m.

Endorsing the Trades Day is the Medina County Pecan Subcommittee. Members in charge of this event are Glenn Bragg, County Agent, Clarence P. Wurzbach, chairman, Wayne Cheney, D'Hanis High School Voc.-Ag. teacher, and Rev. Victor G. Schmidt, local pastor.

Anyone may bring as much pecan budwood and graftwood as they wish from their pecan orchard or yard tree. The pecan wood may be brought for display beginning at 10 a.m. Buying and selling is absolutely prohibited. Bundles of budwood and graftwood should be tagged or labelled giving the name of the variety and the name of the grower.

Purpose of the trading and exchanging is to develop a greater interest in the pecan industry in Medina County, and the meeting of the other pecan growers in Medina County and in the surrounding area; and also an exchange of ideas with regard to problems arising with the growing of pecans.

On Display
On display will be Glenn Bragg's showcase of some 30 to 40 different varieties of pecans mostly grown in this area and the Winter Garden Area. Pecan literature will be on display for growers and visitors.

Also, a demonstration will be held of the already-existent Trickle Irrigation system in the Holy Cross Church Pecan Grove. It is hoped to have one or two speakers from companies that sell and install these systems.

Pecan growers and visitors are welcome to this first annual Pecan Wood Trades Day.

Social Security

"The hospital deductible under Medicare increased to $68 effective January 1, 1972," according to Roy L. Swift, district manager of the San Antonio social security office. Deductibles are the amounts the patient must pay before Medicare takes over.

The Medicare law requires any appreciable increase in hospital cost be reflected in a comparable increase in the amounts paid by the patient. Hospital costs rose in 1970, so the law required that higher deductibles be set to become effective on January 1, 1972. The result in this rise in cost is an increase from $60 to $68.

Swift said the change in the deductible amount does not change the basic rule that allows the patient up to 60 days of covered services in a hospital with only a $68 cost to the patient.

He said that there would also be an increase in the amount a Medicare beneficiary must pay if his hospital stay is longer than 60 days. If a Medicare beneficiary requires hospital care for more than 60 days, he will be responsible for $17 per day for the 61st through the 90th day.

In the rare case that a patient is in the hospital for more than 90 days during the same benefit period, and elects to draw on his "lifetime reserve," he will pay $34 per day rather than the $30 per day in effect prior to January 1.

There also is an increase in the amount payable to an extended care facility. If the patient has a post-hospital stay in an extended care facility of over 20 days, he will be expected to pay $8.50 per day toward the total cost, for the 21st day through the 100th day.

For further information, see your social security representative when he is in your area.

Your representative will be in Hondo at the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 8:45 a.m. Monday.

QUESTION: Is there a penalty for annual reports filed after April 15?

ANSWER: Yes. Late reports may cause the person a penalty. This penalty can be loss of at least one month's payment.

Man killed in wild chase Friday night

A high-speed chase beginning in Hondo ended in tragedy seven miles north of Sabinal Friday night when Nelson Harold Corder, 28, of Castroville died from gunshot wounds.

An investigation headed by Texas Ranger Juquin Jackson of Uvalde listed in its preliminary report Saturday that Corder died from a stray bullet as Hondo police officers attempted to shoot out the tires of his car to end a 30-mile chase.

Hondo Police Chief Jerry Williamson said the chase began when the man came through Hondo driving a pickup at 90 miles an hour.

"I was heading east at the Dairy Queen when he passed my patrol car and I clocked him at 90 miles per hour," Williamson said.

"I made a U turn and gave chase, turning on the revolving red light, the red spotlight and the clear spotlight. I caught him near the Hondo Motel and started to pull alongside still covering his entire pickup with the red spotlight. As I pulled almost even he jerked the pickup into my path and kept going."

Williamson said that from there to Sabinal the driver tried to run him off the road two more times. And he estimated that the pickup ran "at least 25 cars off the road in those 21 miles."

Patrolmen Jim Shofner and Arnold Guajardo caught up with Williamson at the Wagon Wheel near Sabinal and with Shofner driving fell in with the chase. During the meantime Williamson had called for assistance and asked that roadblocks be set up.

The pickup ran the roadblock set up in Sabinal and turned north. Williamson said that in attempt to stop the chase they "began firing at his tires when the road was clear, but the pistol bullets seemed to bounce off."

North of Sabinal Williamson told Shofner for him and Guajardo to take the front spot and see if they could hit the tires with the rifle in their car. This was done and it apparently was a stray shot from this round of firing that hit Corder in the head.

The report filed by Highway Patrolman R. W. Munk said in part: "... The City Marshall of Sabinal joined in the chase in Sabinal and the fleeing vehicle tried to wreck his police car. The Hondo City Police were trying to shoot the tire on the vehicle. (The report says they fired approximately 15 times). The last shot was fired at the vehicle approximately 100 yards before the vehicle left the road. The vehicle left the road traveling 1000 feet knocking down four small trees, seven fence posts and approximately 105 feet of fence. The vehicle came to rest approximately 55 feet inside the fence and 115 feet from the edge of the pavement. The driver of the vehicle had severe head injuries apparently from one of the bullets fired at the vehicle. Both right tires on the vehicle were flat."

The man was taken to the Uvalde Memorial Hospital by a Rushing-Estes Ambulance of Sabinal where he was pronounced dead.

Cub Scout Pack 219 has Blue and Gold Banquet

Cub Scout Pack 219, sponsored by St. John's Catholic Church, held its annual Blue and Gold Banquet Feb. 28 in the Parish Hall.

Phyllis Muenink was in charge of decorations. The highlights were an enormous Texas Flag made of crepe paper and an artificial cherry tree with silhouettes of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln attached. The tables were adorned with placemats and placecards made by the Cubs. Mothers and lady guests received corsages made also by the Cubs.

The opening flag ceremony was conducted by the Webelos Scouts: Steven Graff, Rodney Heiligman, Douglas Cole, Hank Muenink, David Weynand, Dan Calkins, Brian Bader and Michael Neuman, under the direction of their leader, Larry Winkler, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance and National Anthem by all.

Father George Stuebben gave the invocation and led the blessing, after which the guests, Scouts and parents enjoyed a buffet supper.

Robert Van De Walle, Cubmaster, introduced the guests. They were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Doyen, District Organization and Extension Chairman of Kerrville; Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt, Institutional Representative; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. James Richter, Neighborhood Commissioners; Father George Stuebben, Pastor of St. John's and his mother, Mrs. Stuebben; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Beard, Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 192; Mrs. Jack Heath, wife of the Scoutmaster of Scout Troop 219; Mr. and Mrs. Damon Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. James Tschirhart and new scout, Rex Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williamson.

Committee Chairman Harold Lutz, presented personal gifts and a certificate to Mr. and Mrs. James Tschirhart who served as last year's cubmaster and secretary.

The following awards were also presented by Lutz: certificate and one-year pin to Chris Cole (Boy Scout) for his services as Den Chief to Den 1; recruiter patch and strip to Kyle Landers for recruiting Rex Williamson; Bear badges, the third step in cubbing, to Gary and Jerry Stanga, plus a gold arrow point to each of the Stanga boys for completing 10 elective under the Bear. Lutz then turned the program over to his committeemen Fred Bader and Bob Peden.

Bader awarded two silver arrow points under the Wolf Badge, the second step in cubbing, to Ray Lutz and Leslie Boone. He also awarded one silver arrow point under the Wolf to Kevin Long and Brian Van De Walle.

He impressed on them the importance of informing themselves on each candidate then voting their choice.

Johnnie Morales, when asked how he would change the present system if elected, replied, "I will be but one voice against many and my vote in the school board will be just one vote. What I wish to provide with my presence on the board will be someone the people can identify with and confide in if they have problems in school."

The other candidates spoke and solicited the people's support and argued for a unified election. It was stressed by candidates present for the City Council that it was important to vote in bloc if change was desired by the citizens.

For the first ten electives completed under the Wolf badge, just as under the Bear, a Cub receives a gold arrow point, after that the arrow points received are silver, but have the same requirements as the gold.

Webelos Scouts, the fourth step in Scouting, received their awards from Peden. He presented a hard-working Webelos Scout Douglas Cole with four awards—Craftsman, Forester, Scholar and Showman.

Brian Bader received the Aquanaut and Athlete awards. Dan Calkins received the Artist and Citizenship Awards, and Rodney Heiligman and David Weynand each received the Athlete award.

Den 2, led by Den Mother Nancy Boon and her assistant, Lobby Landers, and Den 1, led by Den Mothers Snookie Bader and Elsie Stanga, put on a skit entitled "Freedoms".

Boys participating were Ray Lutz, Kevin Long, Brian Van De Walle, Kyle Landers, Jim O'Malley, Rex Williamson, Joey Neuman, Jerry Stanga, Gary Stanga, Brett Bader, Scott Peden and Leslie Boone.

Guest speaker, Glen Doyen, entertained the audience with a few jokes, stressed the need for parents to participate in the Scouting program, and with Tschirhart's assistance gave pointers on Pinewood Derby Competition.

Announcements made by Cubmaster Robert Van De Walle were: local Pinewood Derby competition scheduled for 2 p. m., March 26 in the Parish Hall; District competition scheduled for 1:30 p. m., April 16, at Peterson Jr. High gym in Kerrville; leadership training session for all parents of Cubs on Monday, March 13, at 7 p. m. in St. John's Library under the direction of Mrs. Damon Westbrook; Goodwill pick-up by Boy Scouts and Cubs March 4 at 9 a. m.

The banquet was closed by Den 1 and Den 2 singing Good-night Cub Scouts and Taps, under the leadership of Bob Peden.

The Hondo Woman's Bowling Association City Tournament was held January 29-30 and February 5-6.

First place team event went to the team sponsored by Joe E. Briscoe under the Three golf tourneys slated

Three golf tournaments are slated at the Hondo Golf Course in the next two weeks, with a big 72-player Pro-Am event set for the men and women Tuesday, March 7.

The Tuesday event begins with a shot-gun start at 1 p. m. Entry fee is $5 plus green fee and deadline is 11 a. m. Tuesday.

Send entry and handicap to Virgil Krenmueller at the Hondo Golf Course.

Other tourneys slated include: Scotch 4-Some on Sunday, March 12, entry fee $2 plus green fee, deadline 12 noon, 1 p. m. start, no limit on players; and Pro-Am Saturday, March 18, entry fee $5 plus green fee, 1:30 p. m. shot-gun start, deadline 11:30 a. m. that day, limit 72 players.

All District named

Medina County boys were named to half the positions on the 1971-72 District 28-AA Basketball All-Star team with two of them being Hondo Owls.

District champion Pear-sall placed the most representatives on the team with three while second-place Hondo and Devine both placed two members on the All-District team. Medina Valley had the fifth Medina County representative.

Named to the first team from Hondo were senior James Batteau and junior Keith Ligon. Named from the Warhorses were a pair of seniors, Bill Dennis and Elly Hernandez. The Panthers representative on the team was Wayne Iltis, also a senior.

Others named to the first team were the Mavericks' name of Colonial Oaks with a score of 2595. The members of the team are Sarah Russell, Mickey Morris, Thelma Brucks, Virginia Jenkins and Marilyn Dale. Second place went to Mixed-Up-Five and third place to Pompa's Beauty Shop team.

The singles event was won by Doris Goodwin with a score of 602, Thelma Wengroth 562, Ellen Gauea 540 and Sarah Russell 539.

The doubles event was won by Sophia Pompa and Sofia Lopez with a score of 1098; Ellen Gauea and Una Cavaasos, 1063; Doris Goodwin and Gloria Gallardo, 1038; Francis Haas and Johnnie Capps, 1037.

The all-events was won by Ellen Gauea with 1647; Sarah Russell, 1627; Doris Goodwin, 1607; Sofia Lopez, 1555; Mickey Morris and Chris Chapa, 1554; Sophia Pompa, 1537; Carmen Sandaval, 1527; Alice Gauea, 1510; and Virginia Jenkins, 1505.

WIBC chevrons, cash awards and trophies were awarded to all first place winners and all others receive cash awards on Feb. 22.

Five teams went to El Paso on Feb. 25 to participate in the Texas Woman's Bowling Association State Tournament.

Allen Lawler, Steve Wilson and Oscar Perez, Ronnie Gasch of Poteet and Jake Dean of Carrizo Springs round out the first team.

Two county basketballers were given honorable mention to the All-Star team. They were Glenn Tschirhart of Medina Valley and Eric Grant of Hondo.

Girls' Champion Devine and Medina Valley dominated the girls team. Named to the All-District team from Devine were Glenda Roberson, Dianna Rohmer, and Clara Campsey. From Medina Valley Linda Burrell and Colleen Ahr were named to the first team.

County girls receiving honorable mention were Marti Fuquay of Devine and Mary Jean Bippert of Medina Valley.

Doubles are fun

Sophia had a good time bowling with Sophia in the Hondo Woman's Bowling Association City Tournament held at Bob's Bowling Lanes February 5 and 6. And both Sophia's won.

For they took the doubles title together. Partners were Sophia Pompa and Sophia Lopez. (Photo by James Overstreet)

The biggest trophy in any bowling tournament is the one given to the sponsor of the winning team. And Joe Briscoe of Devine accepts it here after his Colonial Oaks team took the Hondo Woman's bowling Association

Weynand earns honor

Gordon Wayne Weynand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weynand, earned the right to be designated "Distinguished Student" at Texas A&M University last semester.

Weynand is a student in the College of Geosciences and Dean Earl Cook said in announcing the honor:

"Since the 'Distinguished Student' designation is granted only for exceptional scholastic achievement, you have every right to be proud of your accomplishment."

Baseball season opens in D'Hanis on Tuesday

Looking forward with question marks at first base and pitching, the Hondo Owls open their 1972 baseball season at 4 p. m. Tuesday when they invade Cow-boy Field in D'Hanis. The Owls are set at most positions, but Coach James Bohls still has a question about who will hold down the corner at first and who will do the hurling.

"Right now we are looking at James Prescott, Steve Overman and Robert Black-shear for pitching duties," Bohls said Tuesday. "But at this time I have not decided which one might start."

At the initial corner, Coach Bohls says it will be either Tom Hill or Gary Walch.

Other positions are pretty well set with players who saw action last year. They include: Johnny Abrego, catcher; Lonnie Knowles, second; Robert Blackshear, third (if he doesn't receive the nod for pitcher); Eric Grant, shortstop; Kurt Lein-weber, left; Ben Ybarra, center; and Vincent Arcos, right.

Batting power will be a question mark also. "We have had some pretty good workouts," Coach Bohls said. "The players look pretty fair and Tuesday will tell if they have the eye for the pitch yet."

Leinweber and Abrego head the hitting list from last year. Leinweber slapped out a .339 average over the year, while Abrego ended the season with a .279.

The Owls do not play a home game until March 21 when they host Carrizo Springs in the initial game of District 28-AA play.

Wins singles

School changes policy

A change in the Hondo High School policy on athletic insurance has been voted by the Board of Trustees and announced by Supt. Kenneth Flory.

"The change actually is a slight one," Flory explained. "It consists of sending a form to parents of all athletes and having them sign that they understand. Prior to this all the necessary information has been explained but parents have not been required to sign the form."

The letter and form states: "The following information is provided to inform you of the policy on medical expenses under which all athletes of the Hondo High School are covered:

"The Hondo Independent School District will pay out of the Athletic Fund, doctor, dentist and hospital bills incurred by football, basketball and baseball players as the result of injuries received during practice, scrimmage, or games, provided the coach, high school principal or superintendent authorize in advance the visit and/or consultation and treatment. The maximum participation of the Hondo Independent School District is $2,500. Parents of players shall be notified at the beginning of each respective sport season that they must agree to use such family and/or personal insurance being carried by them to defray as much of the expense as may be recoverable from the insurance company."

Interscholastic League rules require parents to sign the physician's report on students before they can participate. But the new local form puts in writing all facts so that they can be understood.

Here in Hondo

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hill of Houston were house guests of Mrs. Paul Pope last week-end.

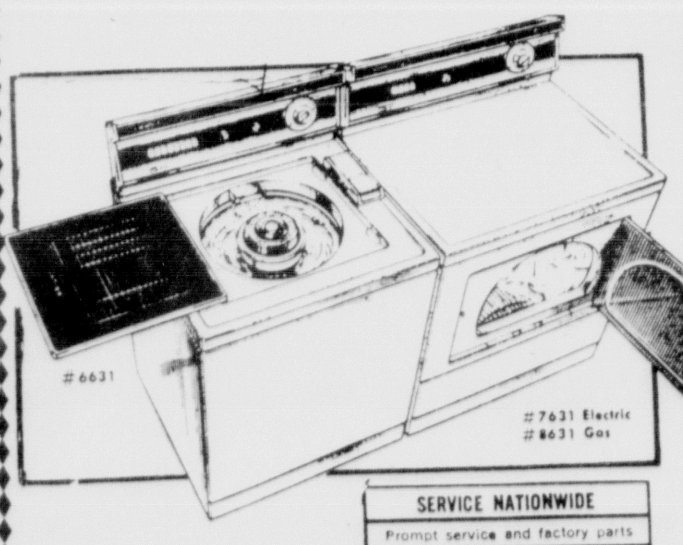

Takes all events

All events includes everything in the alley when a bowling tournament goes into action, and Ellen Gauea of Hondo rolled a total score of 1647 to grab the title in the Hondo Woman's Bowling Association City Tournament. (Photo by James Overstreet)

Public Education Week events scheduled

By Mrs. Marvin Thannisch

DEVINE OPEN HOUSE
The Devine Elementary, Junior High and High School will hold its sixth annual "Young Peoples Art Show" at the elementary school cafeteria on March 9.

This is an important date so be sure and mark it on your calendar because in addition to the art show the PTA is sponsoring its annual Mexican supper, and by special arrangement the Devine Elementary will also be holding Open House from 7 to 9 p.m. The Junior High and Elementary Schools will hold Open House on Thursday night, March 9, from 7 to 9.

SCHOOL. The superintendent James Barta, also accompanied the group.

There were many very good consultants, representing the publishers, who brought out the very best points of each textbook being considered. A great deal of interest was shown by the teachers who came away with a better knowledge of the new textbooks under consideration.

The new textbooks will now be selected for adoption and will be in use beginning the next school term in the fall of 1972.

NATALIA OPEN HOUSE
The public is cordially invited to visit the Natalia Schools at anytime during Public Education Week, March 6-10. A special Open House will be held Monday, March 6, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. for Elementary and Junior High School. The Natalia High School will have Open House from 7 to 9 p.m. This is a good opportunity to meet and talk with your child's teacher and ask questions concerning any area with which you might not be familiar. The teachers will have displays of the students' work as well as special projects of interest. For example, Mrs. Ruth Price, who teaches third grade, will have on display posters used by Pat Eaves and Parker Abell in their 4-H Method Demonstration on Pollution.

The Demonstration won on County and District level and was presented as high as the State level last year. The Natalia Mustang Band will play in the High School Mall from 8:30 to 9 p.m. at which time the visitors and the entire school are invited to hear the band. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria and also in the High School Mall.

March 6 through 10 is Texas Public Schools Week and all parents and interested Texas citizens are invited to visit the public schools of Devine Independent School District. During this special week school facilities and teaching methods are open to inspection and observation of everyone interested.

Public Schools Week in Texas is an excellent opportunity for parents to observe first-hand the progress their children are making academically and socially at school. In fact, parents are especially urged to set aside one day to visit their children's classrooms.

TEXTBOOK HEARING
The Uvalde Independent School District and the Southeast Texas Schoolmen's Association sponsored the annual Textbook Hearing Feb. 15 at the Uvalde High School.

Mrs. Mamie Hargrove, Principal, Mrs. Gladys Solomon, Mrs. Joyce Mittank and Mrs. Faye Young represented the Natalia Elementary School. Clifton Pepper, Principal, and Miss Renean Balke represented Natalia Junior High School. Mrs. Jane Abel and Mr. Migl represented the Natalia High
